Announcements:

- Hot Dogs This Sunday - The Knights of Columbus Council 17708 is hosting a hot dog roast after 11:30 Mass on Sunday, January 5. This is in addition to the monthly potluck. They are providing hot dogs and ask parishioners to bring side items (and other meat they want cooked).
- Men of the Parish: Consider joining the Knights of Columbus, a Catholic fraternity of men created to help Catholic Men support their families through spiritual development, building a fellowship of men supporting men as role models to the world who lead, support, protect, and defend their communities; and through providing you access to decent life insurance to take care of your family should you be suddenly taken by death. The Knights also serve as “the right hand of the Priest” to support the local Pastor in his efforts to improve the Church. To learn more or to join scan the QR Code below, or talk to a Knight wearing their badge today, and they’ll tell you more.
- Mass intentions are open for the months of Jan - Mar. Each family may schedule up to three Mass intentions per month. Recommended donation is $10 per intention. Checks should be made payable to Fr. Jenkins.
- Online Parish Calendar & Ministries- Scan the codes to access the online parish calendar and ministries listing for a full complement of activities within the parish.

Welcome to Our Visitors

Thank you for sharing in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with us today. If you are willing, please introduce yourself to Fr. Jenkins after Mass so he can welcome you. If you are a Catholic, we receive Holy Communion kneeling and by intinction (both species together on the tongue). If you are not a Catholic, or a Catholic but not receiving, during Communion we invite you either to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest or remain in your pew and reflect on the presence of Christ.

Collect of the Day

First Reading: Isaiah 60:1-6

Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you. For behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the Lord will arise upon you, and his glory will be seen upon you. And nations shall walk by your light, and kings in the brightness of your rising. Lift up your eyes round about, and see; they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far, and your daughters shall be carried in the arms. Then you shall see and be radiant, your heart shall thrill and rejoice; because the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you. A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come. They shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praise of the Lord.

Gradual - Omnes de Saba venient - (Is 60:6,1)*All they from Saba shall come, bringing gold and incense: and shall show forth the praises of the Lord.V. Arise and shine, O Jerusalem: for the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.Second Reading: Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6

I assume that you have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for you, how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, which was not made known to the sons of men in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit; that is, how the Gentiles are fellow heirs, members of the same body, and partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the Gospel.

*Gospel Acclamation - Vidimus stellam - (Mt 2:2)R. Alleluia. Alleluia.We have seen his star in the East: and are come with offerings to worship the Lord.R. Alleluia*Gospel: Matthew 2:1-12

Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, Wise Men from the East came to Jerusalem, saying, "Where is he who has been born king of the Jews? For we have seen his star in the East, and have come to worship him." When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him; and assembling all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They told him, "In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it is written by the prophet: 'And you, O Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who will govern my people Israel.'" Then Herod summoned the Wise Men secretly and ascertained from them what time the star appeared; and he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, "Go and search diligently for the child, and when you have found him bring me word, that I too may come and worship him." When they had heard the king they went their way; and behold, the star which they had seen in the East went before them, till it came to rest over the place where the child was. When they saw the star, they rejoiced exceedingly with great joy; and going into the house they saw the child with Mary his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him. Then, opening their treasures, they offered him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh. And being warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed to their own country by another way.
