Welcome to Our Visitors

Thank you for sharing in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with us today. If you are willing, please introduce yourself to Fr. Jenkins after Mass so he can welcome you. If you are a Catholic, we receive Holy Communion kneeling and by intinction (both species together on the tongue). If you are not a Catholic, or a Catholic but not receiving, during Communion we invite you either to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest or remain in your pew and reflect on the presence of Christ.

Processional Hymn: 124 – What Star is This, vs. 1-2Introit – Omnis terra - (Ps 66:3,1)

All the earth shall worship thee, O God, and sing of thee: they shall sing praise to thy Name, O Most Highest.

(Ps) O be joyful in God, all ye lands: sing praises unto the honour of his Name; make his praise to be glorious.

(Bow) Glory be.... (Arise) As it was...

Collect of the Day

First Reading: Isaiah 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest until her vindication goes forth as brightness, and her salvation as a burning torch. The nations shall see your vindication, and all the kings your glory; and you shall be called by a new name which the mouth of the Lord will give. You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. You shall no more be termed Forsaken, and your land shall no more be termed Desolate; but you shall be called My delight is in her, and your land Married; for the Lord delights in you, and your land shall be married. For as a young man marries a virgin, so shall your sons marry you, and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you.

Gradual – Misit Dominus - (Ps 107:20,21)

The Lord sent his word and healed them: and they were saved from their destruction.

V. O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:4-11

There are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of working, but it is the same God who inspires them all in every one. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are inspired by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as he wills.

Gospel Acclamation – Laudate Deum - (Ps 148:2)

R. Alleluia. Alleluia.

Praise the Lord, all ye Angels of his: praise him, all his host.

R. Alleluia.

Gospel: John 2:1-11

There was a marriage at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there; Jesus also was invited to the marriage, with his disciples. When the wine failed, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "O woman, what is that to you or to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now six stone jars were standing there, for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the steward of the feast." So they took it. When the steward of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward of the feast called the bridegroom and said to him, "Every man serves the good wine first; and when men have drunk freely, then the poor wine; but you have kept the good wine until now." This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

Communion – Dicit Dominus - (Jn 2:7,8,9,10)

The Lord saith unto them, Fill the jars with water and take some to the steward of the feast: when the steward of the feast tasted the water now become wine, he saith to the bridegroom, Thou hast kept the good wine until now; this was the first sign Jesus did in the presence of his disciples.
