Pontifical Blessing

In a Pontifical Mass, the celebrating Bishop receives the mitre and, extending his hands, says before imparting the Blessing: The Lord be with you.

People: And with thy spirit.

Bishop: Blessed be the Name of the Lord

People: Now and forever

Bishop: Our help is in the Name of the Lord.

People: Who hath made heaven and earth.

The Bishop or Ordinary then receives the Pastoral Staff and says:

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord;

Making the Sign of the Cross over them three times, he continues:

and the blessing of God Almighty, ✠ the Father, ✠ the Son, ✠ and the Holy Spirit, be amongst you, and remain with you always.

People: Amen.

Welcome to Our Visitors

Thank you for sharing in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with us today. If you are willing, please introduce yourself to Fr. Jenkins after Mass so he can welcome you. If you are a Catholic, we receive Holy Communion kneeling and by intinction (both species together on the tongue). If you are not a Catholic, or a Catholic but not receiving, during Communion we invite you either to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest or remain in your pew and reflect on the presence of Christ.

Collect of the Day

First Reading: Malachi 3:1-4

Thus says the LORD God: “Behold, I send my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple; the messenger of the covenant in whom you delight, behold, he is coming, says the LORD of hosts. But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears? “For he is like a refiner’s fire and like fullers’ soap; he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, till they present right offerings to the LORD. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the days of old and as in former years.

Gradual – *Suscepimus (Ps 48:8,9,7)We have waited, O God, for thy loving-kindness in the midst of thy temple: according to thy Name,O God, so is thy praise unto the world's end.V. Like as we have heard, so have we seen in the city of our God: upon his holy hill.Second Reading: Hebrews 2:14-18

Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same nature, that through death he might destroy him who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to lifelong bondage. For surely it is not with angels that he is concerned but with the descendants of Abraham. Therefore he had to be made like his brethren in every respect, so that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make expiation for the sins of the people. For because he himself has suffered and been tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

*Gospel Acclamation – Senex puerumR. Alleluia. Alleluia.The old man carried the Child: but the Child governed the old man.R. Alleluia.*Gospel: Luke 2:22-32

When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord (as it is written in the law of the Lord, “Every male that opens the womb shall be called holy to the Lord”) and to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the law of the Lord, “a pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.” Now there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon, and this man was righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Lord’s Christ. And inspired by the Spirit he came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him according to the custom of the law, he took him up in his arms and blessed God and said, “Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word; for mine eyes have seen thy salvation which thou hast prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and for glory to thy people Israel.”
