Welcome to Our Visitors

Thank you for sharing in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with us today. If you are willing, please introduce yourself to Fr. Jenkins after Mass so he can welcome you. If you are a Catholic, we receive Holy Communion kneeling and by intinction (both species together on the tongue). If you are not a Catholic, or a Catholic but not receiving, during Communion we invite you either to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest or remain in your pew and reflect on the presence of Christ.

Processional Hymn: 390 – Praise to the Lord, vs. 1-2

Introit – Esto mihi (Ps 31:3,4,1)

Be thou my God and defender, and a place of refuge that thou mayest save me: for thou art my upholder, my refuge, and my Saviour; and for thy Name's sake be thou my leader, and my sustainer.

(Ps) In thee, O Lord, have I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion;

but deliver me in thy righteousness and save me.

(Bow) Glory be.... (Arise) As it was...

Kyrie

Collect of the Day

First Reading: Sirach 27:4-7

When a sieve is shaken, the refuse remains; so a man's filth remains in his thoughts. The kiln tests the potter's vessels; so the test of just men is in tribulation. The fruit discloses the cultivation of a tree; so the expression of a thought discloses the cultivation of a man's mind. Do not praise a man before you hear him speak, for this is the test of men.

Gradual – Tu es Deus (Ps 77:14,15)

Thou art the God that doeth wonders: and hast declared thy power among the peoples

V. Thou hast mightily delivered thy people: even the sons of Jacob and Joseph.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:54-58

When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: "Death is swallowed up in victory." "O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?" The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

Tract – Iubilare Deo (Ps 100:1,2)

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: serve the Lord with gladness.

V. Come before his presence with a song: be ye sure that the Lord he is God.

V. It is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves: we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Gospel: Luke 6:39-45

Jesus told his disciples a parable: "Can a blind man lead a blind man? Will they not both fall into a pit? A disciple is not above his teacher but every one when he is fully taught will be like his teacher. Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? Or how can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me take out the speck that is in your eye,' when you yourself do not see the log that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck that is in your brother's eye. "For no good tree bears bad fruit, nor again does a bad tree bear good fruit; for each tree is known by its own fruit. For figs are not gathered from thorns, nor are grapes picked from a bramble bush. The good man out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil man out of his evil treasure produces evil; for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks."
