Announcements:

- Support Our Seminarians with Prayers & Gifts - This weekend you have the opportunity to support our seminarians who have discerned a call to serve as priests, the next shepherds of the Ordinariate of the Chair of St. Peter. Today, all parishes are hosting a second collection for the I Will Give You Shepherds Capital Campaign for Priestly Formation. You may find donation cards and pre-addressed envelopes on the table in the back of the church. Checks should be made payable to "Ordinariate of the Chair of St. Peter", sealed in the provided envelopes, with a completed donation card. You may also give online using the QR code. Thank you for your support of the seminarians who have so generously responded to the call to serve the Lord, the Church, and all of us!
- VBS - Vacation Bible School is the week of July 7-11. Anyone interested in registering or volunteering for VBS, please use the QR codes below:

Welcome to Our Visitors

Thank you for sharing in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with us today. If you are willing, please introduce yourself to Fr. Jenkins after Mass so he can welcome you. If you are a Catholic, we receive Holy Communion kneeling and by intinction (both species together on the tongue). If you are not a Catholic, or a Catholic but not receiving, during Communion we invite you either to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest and kneel in the presence of Christ. We do not offer blessings at the altar rail, but rather a moment of Adoration in the presence of the Lord.

Collect of the Day

First Reading: Acts 13:14, 43-52

Paul and Barnabas passed on from Perga and came to Antioch of Pisidia. And on the sabbath day they went into the synagogue and sat down. And many Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to continue in the grace of God. The next sabbath almost the whole city gathered together to hear the word of God. But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted what was spoken by Paul, and reviled him. And Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, saying, "It was necessary that the word of God should be spoken first to you. Since you thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we turn to the Gentiles. For so the Lord has commanded us, saying, I have set you to be a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the uttermost parts of the earth." And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and glorified the word of God; and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. And the word of the Lord spread throughout all the region. But the Jews incited the devout women of high standing and the leading men of the city, and stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and drove them out of their district. But they shook off the dust from their feet against them, and went to Iconium. And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

Responsorial Psalm 100:1-2, 3, 5 (R. 3c)R. We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the lands! Serve the Lord with gladness!

Come into his presence with singing! R.

Know that the Lord is God! It is he that made us, and we are his;

we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. R.For the Lord is good; his mercy endures for ever, and his faithfulness to all generations. R.*Second Reading: Revelation 7:9, 14b-17

I, John, looked, and behold, a great multitude which no man could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands. Then one of the elders said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great tribulation; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night within his temple; and he who sits upon the throne will shelter them with his presence. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; the sun shall not strike them, nor any scorching heat. For the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of living water; and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Gospel Acclamation – Redemptionem (Ps 111:9; Jn 10:14)

R. Alleluia. Alleluia. The Lord hath sent redemption unto his people. Alleluia. I am the good Shepherd: and I know my sheep, and am known of mine. Alleluia.

Gospel: John 10:27-30

At that time: Jesus said, "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me; and I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish, and no one shall snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. I and the Father are one."
