The Rev. Jon C. Jenkins, Parochial Administrator
3550 Southwest Loop 820, Fort Worth, TX 76133

Welcome to Our Visitors!

Thank you for sharing in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with us today! If you are willing, please introduce yourself to Fr. Jenkins after Mass so he can welcome you. If you are a Catholic, we receive Holy Communion kneeling and by intinction (both species together on the tongue). If you are not a Catholic, or a Catholic but not receiving, during Communion we invite you to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest and kneel in the presence of Christ. We do not offer blessings at the altar rail, but rather a moment of Adoration in the presence of the Lord.

Processional Hymn: 225 – Hail Thee, Festival Day, vs. 1-2

Introit – Spiritus Domini (Wis 1:7; Ps 68:1)

*The Spirit of the Lord hath filled the whole world, alleluia:
and that which containeth all things hath knowledge of the voice. Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia.
(Ps) Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him.
GLORY. The Spirit...*

First Reading: Acts 15:1-2, 22-29

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly a sound came from heaven like the rush of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared to them tongues as of fire, distributed and resting on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men from every nation under heaven. And at this sound the multitude came together, and they were bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. And they were amazed and wondered, saying, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us in his own native language? Parthians and Medes and Elamites and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians, we hear them telling in our own tongues the mighty works of God.”

Responsorial Psalm 104: 1ab and 24ac, 29bc-30, 31 and 34 (R. 39)

R. Lord, send forth your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth. Bless the Lord, oh my soul! Oh Lord my God, you are very great! Oh Lord how manifold are your works! The earth is full of your creatures. R. When you take away their spirit, they die and return to dust. When you send forth your Spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the earth. R. May the glory of the Lord endure for ever, may the Lord rejoice in his works. May my meditation be pleasing to him, for I rejoice in the Lord. R.

Second Reading: Romans 8:8-17

Brethren: Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh, you are in the Spirit, if the Spirit of God really dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although your bodies are dead because of sin, your spirits are alive because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also through his Spirit who dwells in you. So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh—for if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the spirit of sonship. When we cry, “Abba! Father!” it is the Spirit himself bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him.

Gospel Acclamation – Emitte Spiritum (Ps 104:30)

Alleluia. R. Alleluia.

Come, O Holy Spirit, [here genuflect] fill the hearts of your faithful;
and kindle in them the fire of your love.
R. Alleluia.

Sequence – Veni Sancte Spiritus

Gospel: John: 20:19-23

On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being shut where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, “Peace be with you.” When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you.” And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”
