Announcements:

- Religious Education (RE) Registration – Welcome to another wonderful year of formation for your children! We believe that children are best trained in the Catholic context for the development of the spiritual life. As such, the default position for education is in the Church among their peers where they can not only receive information but furthermore actual formation in the life of a Catholic Christian. We look forward to shaping them into the Saints God gave them to you to become. Please scan the QR code on the front of the bulletin to register your kids today! For questions, please reach out to secretary@stbecketfw.org.
- The 2025 Bishop's Appeal is our opportunity to unite as one Ordinariate family. Gifts to the Bishop's Appeal support ministries that cannot be accomplished by one parish or community alone including: the development of new parishes, Bishop Lopes' visits to all of the parishes of the Ordinariate, communication outreach, and more! Please help our community meet or exceed its 2025 goal of $24,000. If you have not yet made your pledge to the Bishop's Appeal, we ask you to do so today. Help us reach 100% participation! Pledge cards and envelopes are available in the church or you may give online at ordinariate.net/bishops-appeal. Together we can meet the increasing needs of our growing Ordinariate!
- Ladies of the parish - you are invited to prayerfully consider joining the women of the parish who are currently praying for Fr. Jenkins and Bishop Lopes through the "Seven Sisters Apostolate". Want to learn more? Join us for a pilgrimage on June 21st to Our Lady of Walsingham Cathedral in Houston for a Seven Sisters Day of Reflection, featuring Seven Sisters foundress, Janette Howe.
- Men of the parish - You are invited to consider supporting your clergy by joining "Fasting Brothers". Please contact stbsevensisters@gmail.com for more information on either group.

Welcome to Our Visitors!

Thank you for sharing in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with us today! If you are willing, please introduce yourself to Fr. Jenkins after Mass so he can welcome you. If you are a Catholic, we receive Holy Communion kneeling and by intinction (both species together on the tongue). If you are not a Catholic, or a Catholic but not receiving, during Communion we invite you to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest and kneel in the presence of Christ. We do not offer blessings at the altar rail, but rather a moment of Adoration in the presence of the Lord.

First Reading: Proverbs 8:22-31

Thus speaks the wisdom of God: “The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of old. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water, Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth; before he had made the earth with its fields, or the first of the dust of the world. When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master workman; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the sons of men.”

Responsorial Psalm 8:3-4, 5-6, 7-8 (1a)

R. O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! When I look at your heavens, the works of your fingers, the moon and the stars which you have established; what is man that you are mindful of him, and the son of man that you care for him? R. Yet you have made him little less than the angels, and you have crowned him with glory and honor. You have given him dominion over the works of your hands. You have put all things under his feet. R. All sheep and oxen, and all the beasts of the field, the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea, whatever passes along the paths of the sea. R.

Second Reading: Romans 5:1-5

Brethren: since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in our hope of sharing the glory of God. More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

Gospel Acclamation – (Revelation 1:8)

Alleluia. R. Alleluia.

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

R. Alleluia.

Gospel: John: 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples, “I have yet many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine; therefore I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.”
