Announcements:

- Religious Education (RE) Registration – Welcome to another wonderful year of formation for your children! We believe that children are best trained in the Catholic context for the development of the spiritual life. As such, the default position for education is in the Church among their peers where they can not only receive information but furthermore actual formation in the life of a Catholic Christian. We look forward to shaping them into the Saints God gave them to you to become. Please scan the QR code on the front of the bulletin to register your kids today! For questions, please reach out to secretary@stbecketfw.org.
- Men of the parish – the Knights of Columbus invite you to have dinner with us on Tuesday, June 24th. There will be confession in the church from 5:00-6:20pm on Tuesday the 24th, followed by evening prayer starting at 6:30. Afterwards (6:50 or so) we'll meet in the breeze-way to decide where to eat - hope to see many of you there!

New Daily Mass Schedule to begin in July after Fr. Jenkins' return from Vacation

June 30th-July 11th, there will be no Daily Masses as Fr. Jenkins will be away for vacation. This includes the First Friday/First Saturday masses and Adoration during that period. It is also 4th of July weekend, where many of you may be travelling or having family events anyhow. Saturday Vigil Mass and Sunday masses will continue and be covered by visiting Priests.

BEGINNING JULY 14th, the daily mass schedule will be as follows:

Monday-Thursday: 11:30-12:00 Confessions	12:15pm Mass
Tuesday Evening: 4:00pm-6:20pm Confessions	6:30pm Evening Prayer/Benediction
First Fridays: 4:00-4:50pm Confessions	5pm Mass
First Saturday: 11:30-12:00 Confessions	12:15pm Mass

Bishop Steven J. Lopes

The Rev. Jon C. Jenkins, Parochial Administrator
3550 Southwest Loop 820, Fort Worth, TX 76133

Welcome to Our Visitors!

Thank you for sharing in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with us today! If you are willing, please introduce yourself to Fr. Jenkins after Mass so he can welcome you. If you are a Catholic, we receive Holy Communion kneeling and by intinction (both species together on the tongue). If you are not a Catholic, or a Catholic but not receiving, during Communion we invite you to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest and kneel in the presence of Christ. We do not offer blessings at the altar rail, but rather a moment of Adoration in the presence of the Lord.

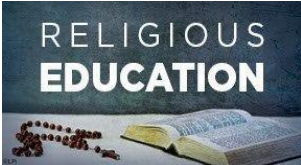

GIVE – Make a one-time donation or set up a recurring offering.
JOIN – Registration forms to join our parish or the Ordinariate.
KNOW – Sign up for Flocknote to receive emails about upcoming events.

Collect of the Day

O GOD, who in a wonderful Sacrament hast left unto us a memorial of thy Passion: grant us, we beseech thee, so to venerate the sacred mysteries of thy Body and Blood; that we may ever know within ourselves the fruit of thy redemption; who livest and reignest with the Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

First Reading: Genesis 14:18-20

Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was priest of God Most High. And he blessed Abram and said, “Blessed be Abram by God Most High, maker of heaven and earth; and blessed be God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand!” And Abram gave him a tenth of everything.

Gradual

[Read by Acolyte or chanted by a Cantor. Congregation does not respond]

The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord: and thou givest them their meat in due season. V. Thou openest thy hand: and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Brethren: I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, “This is my body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” In the same way also the chalice, after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.” For as often as you eat this bread and drink the chalice, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.

Gospel Acclamation – (John 6:51)

Alleluia. R. Alleluia.

My Flesh is meat indeed, and my Blood is drink indeed: he that eateth my Flesh and drinketh my Blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. Alleluia.

R. Alleluia.

Sequence – Lauda Sion Salvatorem

Gospel: Luke 9:11b-17

Jesus spoke to the crowds of the kingdom of God, and cured those who had need of healing. Now the day began to wear away; and the Twelve came and said to him, “Send the crowd away, to go into the villages and country round about, to lodge and get provisions; for we are here in a lonely place.” But he said to them, “You give them something to eat.” They said, “We have no more than five loaves and two fish – unless we are to go and buy food for all these people.” For there were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, “Make them sit down in companies, about fifty each.” And they did so, and made them all sit down. And taking the five loaves and the two fish he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. And all ate and were satisfied. And they took up what was left over, twelve baskets of broken pieces.

Offertory – Portas caeli (Ps 78:24b,25,26)

The Lord opened the doors of heaven, and rained down manna also upon them for to eat: he gave them bread from heaven; so man did eat Angels’ food. Alleluia.

Offertory Hymn: 307 – Lord, Enthroned vs. 1-2, 4-5
