- Religious Education (RE) Registration – Welcome to another wonderful year of formation for your children! We believe that children are best trained in the Catholic context for the development of the spiritual life. As such, the default position for education is in the Church among their peers where they can not only receive information but furthermore actual for-mation in the life of a Catholic Christian. We look forward to shaping them into the Saints God gave them to you to become. Please scan the QR code on the front of the bulletin to register your kids today! For questions, please reach out to secretary@stbecketfw.org.
- Mass intentions are open for July-September. To request a Mass intention please email the parish office at secretary@stbecketfw.org. Recommended donation per intention is $10. Make checks payable to Fr. Jenkins.

Welcome to Our Visitors!

Thank you for sharing in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with us today! If you are willing, please introduce yourself to Fr. Jenkins after Mass so he can welcome you. If you are a Catholic, we receive Holy Communion kneeling and by intinction (both species together on the tongue). If you are not a Catholic, or a Catholic but not receiving, during Communion we invite you to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest and kneel in the presence of Christ. We do not offer blessings at the altar rail, but rather a moment of Adoration in the presence of the Lord.

Processional Hymn: 530 – Spread, O Spread Thy Mighty Word, vs. 1-2Introit – Respice in me (Ps 25:15,17,1)

Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me, O Lord; for I am desolate, and in tribulation: look thou on mine affliction, and my travail; and forgive me all mine iniquities, O my God.

(Ps) Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul: my God, in thee have I trusted; let me never be confounded. GLORY. Turn thee...

Collect of the Day

O LORD, we beseech thee mercifully to hear us: and grant that we, to whom thou hast given an hearty desire to pray, may, by thy mighty aid, be defended and comforted in all dangers and adversities; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

First Reading: Isaiah 66:10-14c

“Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all you who love her; rejoice with her in joy, all you who mourn over her; that you may suck and be satisfied with her consoling breasts; that you may drink deeply with delight from the abundance of her glory.” For thus says the Lord: “Behold, I will extend prosperity to her like a river, and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing stream; and you shall suck, you shall be carried upon her hip, and fondled upon her knees. As one whom his mother comforts, so I will comfort you; you shall be comforted in Jerusalem. You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice; your bones shall flourish like the grass; and it shall be known that the hand of the Lord is with his servants.

Gradual – Iacta cogitatum tuum (Ps 55:23,17,19)

[Read by Acolyte or chanted by a Cantor. Congregation does not respond]

O cast thy burden upon the Lord: and he shall nourish thee. V. When I cried unto the Lord, he heard my voice: from the battle that was against me.

Second Reading: Galatians 6:14-18

Brethren: Far be it from me to glory except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation. Peace and mercy be upon all who walk by this rule, upon the Israel of God. Henceforth let no man trouble me; for I bear on my body the marks of Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brethren. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation – Deus iudex iustus (Ps 7:12)

Alleluia. R. Alleluia.

God is a righteous Judge, strong and patient: and God is provoked every day.

R. Alleluia.

Gospel: Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

The Lord appointed seventy others, and sent them on ahead of him, two by two, into every town and place where he himself was about to come. And he said to them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; pray therefore the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. Go your way; behold, I send you out as lambs in the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and salute no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, ‘Peace be to this house!’ And if a son of peace is there, your peace shall rest upon him; but if not, it shall return to you. And remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the laborer deserves his wages; do not go from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and they receive you, eat what is set before you; heal the sick in it and say to them, ‘The kingdom of God has come near to you.’ But whenever you enter a town and they do not receive you, go into its streets and say, ‘Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off against you; nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God has come near.’ I tell you, it shall be more tolerable on that day for Sodom than for that town. The seventy returned with joy, saying, “Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name!” And he said to them, “I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Behold, I have given you authority to tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing shall hurt you. Nevertheless do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you; but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.”
