Announcements:

- The 2026 Bishop's Appeal - If you have not already offered a pledge to Bishop's Appeal 2026, please do so today. Your support is crucial to help the Ordinariate widen its ministry through essential support to our parishes across the U.S. and Canada. With every family's participation, our Parish/Parochial Community will do our share to advance the mission of the Ordinariate and welcome others into full, Catholic communion. Scan the QR code or pick up a pledge card and envelope from the parish today. Thank you for your generosity.
- Easter Lilies - If you would like to donate for the Easter lilies that will be placed on the altar, please pick up an envelope on the tables in the back of the church. The Easter Masses will be offered for memorials of the individuals who contributed.
- Baby Bottle Drive - Please help us to support Mother and Unborn Baby Care's more than four decades of life and soul-saving work, offering hope and help to those women in crisis seeking abortion. Take a baby bottle and fill it with the loose change from your home, car, or desk, or scan the QR code to make a one-time or recurring donation to support their ministry. Bottles are due back by April 12th.
- Mass Intentions for March-June Are Open! To request a Mass intention, please email secretary@stbecketfw.org, then fill out a Mass Intention envelope and place in the offering boxes in the church. Donations (cash or check) can be placed in the envelope. Checks should be made payable to Fr. Jon Jenkins.

Welcome to Our Visitors!

Thank you for sharing in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with us today! If you are willing, please introduce yourself to Fr. Jenkins after Mass so he can welcome you, or sign in our Visitor's Log in the main entrance. If you are a Catholic, we receive Holy Communion kneeling and by intinction (both species together on the tongue). If you are not a Catholic, or a Catholic but not receiving, during Communion we invite you to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest and kneel in the presence of Christ. We do not offer blessings at the altar rail, but rather a moment of Adoration in the presence of the Lord.

The NEXT BIG THING at STB is...

Stations of the Cross

On Fridays during Lent, we will be having Stations of the Cross in the church starting at 6:30pm, followed by a meatless potluck in the parish hall. Stations only take about 25 minutes to pray.

Various ministries of the parish are sponsoring each week. Come and join us in prayer as we contemplate the "Way of Sorrows" with our Lord.

Processional Hymn: 423 – Immortal, Invisible, God vs. 1-2

Introit – Laetare Ierusalem (Is 66:10,11; Ps 122:1)

Rejoice ye with Jerusalem; and be glad for her, all ye that delight in her: exult and sing for joy with her, all ye that in sadness mourn for her; that ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations.
(Ps) I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord.
GLORY. Rejoice ye...

Collect of the Day

GRANT, we beseech thee, Almighty God: that we, who for our evil deeds do worthily deserve to be punished, by the comfort of thy grace, may mercifully be relieved; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

First Reading: 1 Samuel 16:1b, 6-7, 10-13a

The Lord said to Samuel, “Fill your horn with oil, and go; I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have provided for myself a king among his sons.” When they came, he looked on Eliab and thought, “Surely the Lord’s anointed is before him.” But the Lord said to Samuel, “Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him; for the Lord sees not as man sees; man looks on the outward appearance, but the Lord looks on the heart.” And Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel. And Samuel said to Jesse, “The Lord has not chosen these.” And Samuel said to Jesse, “Are all your sons here?” And he said, “There remains yet the youngest, but behold, he is keeping the sheep.” And Samuel said to Jesse, “Send and fetch him; for we will not sit down till he comes here.” And he sent, and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, and had beautiful eyes, and was handsome. And the Lord said, “Arise, anoint him; for this is he.” Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brothers; and the Spirit of the Lord came mightily upon David from that day forward.

Gradual – Laetatus sum (Ps 122:1,7)

[Read by Acolyte or chanted by a Cantor. Congregation does not respond]
I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord.
V. Peace be within thy walls: and plenteousness within thy palaces.

Second Reading: Ephesians 5:8-14

Brethren: Once you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord; walk as children of light (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true), and try to learn what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them. For it is a shame even to speak of the things that they do in secret; but when anything is exposed by the light it becomes visible, for anything that becomes visible is light. Therefore it is said, “Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give you light.”

Tract – Qui confidunt (Ps 125:1,2)

They that put their trust in the Lord shall be even as the mount Sion:
which may not be removed, but standeth fast for ever. V. The hills stand about Jerusalem:
even so standeth the Lord round about his people, from this time forth for evermore.

Gospel: John 9:1, 6-9, 13-17, 34-38

As Jesus passed by, he saw a man blind from his birth. And he spat on the ground and made clay of the spittle and anointed the man’s eyes with the clay, saying to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloam” (which means Sent). So he went and washed and came back seeing. The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar, said, “Is not this the man who used to sit and beg?” Some said, “It is he”; others said, “No, but he is like him.” He said, “I am the man.” They brought to the Pharisees the man who had formerly been blind. Now it was a sabbath day when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes. The Pharisees asked him how he had received his sight. And he said to them, “He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and I see.” Some of the Pharisees said, “This man is not from God, for he does not keep the sabbath.” But others said, “How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?” There was a division among them. So they again said to the blind man, “What do you say about him, since he has opened your eyes?” He said, “He is a prophet.” They answered him, “You were born in utter sin, and would you teach us?” And they cast him out. Jesus heard that they had cast him out, and having found him he said, “Do you believe in the Son of man?” He answered, “And who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?” Jesus said to him, “You have seen him, and it is he who speaks to you.” He said, “Lord, I believe”; and he worshiped him.

Offertory – Laudate Dominum (Ps 135:3,6)

O praise the Lord, for the Lord is gracious; O sing praises unto his Name, for it is lovely:
whatsoever the Lord pleased, that did he in heaven and in earth.

Offertory Hymn: 512 – Christ is the World’s True Light
