Announcements:

- The 2026 Bishop's Appeal – As members of a larger family of Catholics in the Ordinariate, we are given the opportunity to support our shared mission of evangelization through the Bishop's Appeal. Our parish has a goal of $25,000 for this year's appeal. Your gift cultivates additional vocations to the priesthood & religious life, provides administrative support to our parishes, broadens Ordinariate-wide communications, supports parish development across the Ordinariate, and much more. Thank you for your support! Use the QR code or pick up a pledge card and envelope today.
- Living in the Light is a young adult women's Bible study dedicated to walking in the truth and freedom of Christ. Through Scripture, discussion, and prayer, we seek to leave behind darkness and grow as women who reflect His light in every area of life. We gather every other Wednesday from 6:30–8:30 PM in the parish hall. The next gathering is 3/25. We hope to see you there.
- Flower Donations – Honor your loved ones' birthdays, Anniversaries, graduations or any other special occasion by sponsoring the flowers in the Church. See the chart on the wall near the choir loft steps in the Narthex to sign up.
- Easter Lilies – If you would like to donate for the Easter lilies that will be placed on the altar, please pick up an envelope on the tables in the back of the church. The Easter Masses will be offered for memorials of the individuals who contributed.
- Youth Group Service Project – Thanks to the generosity of our parishioners and the efforts of Frassati Youth at STB, we delivered 120+ Blessing Bags to Catholic Charities Fort Worth! Your donations exceeded our expectations! Having recently run out of hygiene kits, CCFW told us that these bags are an immediate need and will bless many recipients. Thank you, parishioners and Fr. Jenkins for your support of our Lenten Service Project!
- Baby Bottle Drive – Please help us to support Mother and Unborn Baby Care's more than four decades of life and soul-saving work, offering hope and help to those women in crisis seeking abortion. Take a baby bottle and fill it with the loose change from your home, car, or desk, or scan the QR code to make a one-time or recurring donation to support their ministry. Bottles are due back by April 12th.

St. Thomas Becket Catholic Church
a parish of the Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of St. Peter
Bishop Steven J. Lopes

The Rev. Jon C. Jenkins, Parochial Administrator
3550 Southwest Loop 820, Fort Worth, TX 76133

Welcome to Our Visitors!

Thank you for sharing in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with us today! If you are willing, please introduce yourself to Fr. Jenkins after Mass so he can welcome you, or sign in our Visitor's Log in the main entrance. If you are a Catholic, we receive Holy Communion kneeling and by intinction (both species together on the tongue). If you are not a Catholic, or a Catholic but not receiving, during Communion we invite you to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest and kneel in the presence of Christ. We do not offer blessings at the altar rail, but rather a moment of Adoration in the presence of the Lord.

Processional Hymn: 675 – Take Up Your Cross, vs. 1-2Introit – Iudica me, Deus (Ps 43:1,2,3)

Give sentence with me, O God, and defend the cause of my soul against the ungodly people: deliver me, and rid me from the deceitful and wicked man; for thou, O Lord, art my God, and my strong salvation.

(Ps) O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me:

and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

Give sentence...

Collect of the Day

WE beseech thee, Almighty God, mercifully to look upon thy people: that by thy great goodness they may be governed and preserved evermore, both in body and soul; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

First Reading: Ezekiel 37:12-14

Thus says the Lord God: Behold, I will open your graves, and raise you from your graves, O my people; and I will bring you home into the land of Israel. And you shall know that I am the Lord, when I open your graves, and raise you from your graves, O my people. And I will put my Spirit within you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land; then you shall know that I, the Lord, have spoken, and I have done it, says the Lord.

Gradual – Eripe me, Domine (Ps 143:9,10; 18:49)

[Read by Acolyte or chanted by a Cantor. Congregation does not respond]

Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies: teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee.

V. It is the Lord that delivereth me from my cruel enemies, and setteth me up above mine adversaries:

thou shalt deliver me from the wicked man.

Second Reading: Romans 8:8-11

Brethren: Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh, you are in the Spirit, if the Spirit of God really dwells in you. Any one who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although your bodies are dead because of sin, your spirits are alive because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also through his Spirit who dwells in you.

Tract – Saepe expugnaverunt me (Ps 129:1-4)

Many a time have they fought against me: from my youth up. V. May Israel now say: Yea, many a time have they vexed me from my youth up. V. But they have not prevailed against me: the ploughers ploughed upon my back.

V. And made long furrows: but the righteous Lord hath hewn the snares of the ungodly in pieces.

Gospel: John 11:3-7, 17, 20-27, 33b-45

The sisters of Lazarus sent to Jesus, saying, “Lord, he whom you love is ill.” But when Jesus heard it he said, “The illness is not unto death; it is for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified by means of it.” Now Jesus love Martha and her sister and Lazarus. So when he heard he was ill, he stayed two days longer in the place where he was. Then after this he said to his disciples, “Let us go into Judea again.” Now when Jesus came, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, while Mary sat in the house. Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. And even now I know that whatever you ask from God, God will give you.” Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.” Martha said to him, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.” Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?” She said to him, “Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, he who is coming into the world.” Jesus therefore was deeply moved again in spirit and troubled; and he said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to him, “Lord, come and see.” Jesus wept. So the Jews said, “See how he loved him!” But some of them said, “Could not he who opened the eyes of a blind man have kept this man from dying?” Then Jesus, deeply moved again, came to the tomb; it was a cave, and a stone lay upon it. Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, “Lord, by this time there will be an odor, for he has been dead four days.” Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you would believe you would see the glory of God?” So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes and said, “Father, I thank you that you have heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this on account of the people standing by, that they may believe that you have sent me.” When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out.” The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with bandages, and his face wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.” Many of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what he did, believed in him.
