Jenkins after Mass so he can welcome you, or sign in our Visitor’s Log in the main entrance. If you are a Catholic, we receive Holy Communion kneeling and by intinction (both species together on the tongue). If you are not a Catholic, or a Catholic but not receiving, during Communion we invite you to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest and kneel in the presence of Christ. Processional Hymn: 637 – How Firm a Foundation, vs. 1-2Introit – Dum clamarem (Ps 55:19,20,23,1,2)

When I called upon the Lord, he heard my voice, even from the battle that was against me:

yea, even God that endureth for ever shall hear me, and bring them down:

O cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall nourish thee.

(Ps) Hear my prayer, O Lord, and hide not thyself from my petition: take heed unto me, and hear me.

Collect of the Day

LET thy merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of thy humble servants: and that they may obtain their petitions, make them to ask such things as shall please thee; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

First Reading: 1 Kings 19:9a, 11-13a

When Elijah came to Horeb the mount of God, he lodged in a cave; and behold, the word of the Lord came to him. And he said, “Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the Lord.” And behold, the Lord passed by, and a great and strong wind tore the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire a still small voice. And when Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave.

Gradual – Custodi me (Ps 17:8,2)

[Read by Acolyte or chanted by a Cantor. Congregation does not respond]

Keep me, O Lord, as the apple of an eye: hide me under the shadow of thy wings.

V. Let my sentence come forth from thy presence: and let thine eyes look upon the thing that is equal.

Second Reading: Romans 9:1-5

Brethren: I am speaking the truth in Christ, I am not lying; my conscience bears me witness in the Holy Spirit, that I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh. They are Israelites, and to them belong the sonship, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises; to them belong the patriarchs, and of their race, according to the flesh, is the Christ, who is God over all, blessed for ever. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation – Te decet hymnus (Ps 65:1)

Alleluia. R. Alleluia.

Thou, O God, art praised in Sion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed in Jerusalem. R. Alleluia.

Gospel: Matthew 14:22-33

After the crowd was satisfied, Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go before him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up into the hills by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but the boat by this time was many furlongs distant from the land, beaten by the waves; for the wind was against them. And in the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea. But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, “It is a ghost!” And they cried out for fear. But immediately he spoke to them, saying, “Take heart, it is I; have no fear.” And Peter answered him, “Lord, if it is you, bid me come to you on the water.” He said, “Come.” So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus; but when he saw the wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink he cried out, “Lord, save me.” Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, “O you of little faith, why did you doubt?” And when they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, “Truly you are the Son of God.”
